

Four Corners Air Quality Task Force

Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment

You are Invited to Attend the First Working Session Of the Four Corners Air Quality Task Force

- WHAT: The first regular quarterly meeting of the Four Corners Air Quality Task Force
- WHEN: Wednesday, February 8, 3 p.m. to 7 p.m.
- WHERE: The Doubletree Hotel Durango – Animas Room
501 Camino Del Rio
Durango, Colorado 81301
- WHY: The Four Corners Air Quality Task Force was formed to discuss and analyze the growing air quality challenges facing the region. The affected states, tribes, federal land managers and area residents have come together with a goal of identifying options for addressing a wide range of air quality issues.

At the initial public meeting in Farmington, New Mexico in November 2005, interested parties were asked to participate in an on-going process for addressing regional air quality issues. As a result, work groups have been formed featuring those who have expressed interest in sharing their thoughts and expertise on issues related to oil and gas development, power generation, other area pollution sources, computer modeling and air quality monitoring.

The February 8 meeting will provide these work groups with their first opportunities to meet, establish meeting protocols, set a schedule for activities and begin the work of the task force.

- NOTES: Please bring your calendars to this session. Each work group will be establishing a teleconferencing schedule for communication between the regular quarterly meetings. Cookies, coffee and soda will be provided for attendees.
- CONTACT: For those individuals who missed the initial meeting of the Task Force, please visit the Task Force website at <http://www.nmenv.state.nm.us/aqb/4C/index.html> and click on Documents to find materials from that meeting. If you are unable to attend this meeting, you may learn more about Task Force activities by visiting the website.
